

LINDENWOOD UNIVERSITY
Graduate Credit for MOREnet Training Programs

Lindenwood University will offer a graduate education credit component in conjunction with select MOREnet training programs. Day-long training programs, when matched with required follow-up activities, can carry one hour of graduate credit. Programs of two or three day duration can carry two hours of graduate credit. Programs in excess of three days can carry three credit hours.

In addition to active participation in the training program, participants seeking graduate credit must submit the following:

- 1) A brief summary of the new skills learned from the training session.
- 2) A conference action plan detailing how skills mastered in the MOREnet training will be implemented in the participant's work site. The conference action plan should include a description of the change to be implemented, the outcomes desired, and an assessment method to determine if the desired outcome has been achieved.

Special workshop tuition rate-$60 per credit hour
